Overview

ABSTRACT
NOTE: The datasets attached (those found on india_gdb) respresent estimates for ONLY India. Data for the other countries from 2006-2015 can be found in the X-drive: [X:\DataSets\UN] **

Every two years the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs' Population Division prepares the official United Nations estimates and projections of world, regional and national population size and growth, and demographic indicators.

The United Nations also prepares supplementary world population projections covering a much longer period, referred to as long-range projections.

Coverage

GEOGRAPHIC COVERAGE
Early projections were for the world or large regions only. Beginning in 1968, the UN began making projections for individual countries. The latest set, the 2015 Revision, includes projections from 2015 to 2100 for 201 countries or areas (those with 90,000 or more inhabitants in 2013).
